AMEND Senate Bill No. 2560

House Bill No. 2622***

By adding the following new paragraphs to SECTION 3 as amended by Amendment # 2:

For the purpose of determining if there are limits upon our freedom to choose to pay or not pay federal income taxes, this section shall be commenced as a pilot project in the forty-second state representative district. For the purpose of further determining the limits of such freedom, the pilot project in the forty-second state representative district shall only apply to the state representative for the forty-second state representative district.

By April 15, 2011, the state representative for the forty-second state representative district shall report, if permitted by the federal bureau of prisons, to the house of representatives and senate the degree to which our freedom to choose to pay or not pay federal income taxes is inalienable and absolute.
